

How do I find out more?

If you or someone you know could benefit from some help with reading, writing or numbers and would like to find out more, then contact us on freephone

0800 027 6402

or log on to our website www.glasgowlearning.org.uk

where you can search through our list of learning providers across the city to find the right one to suit you.

GLASGOW'S
LEARNING

Do you want to improve your reading, writing and numbers skills?

I can now do my job search online.

I feel more confident helping my daughter with her homework. I can pass on my new skills to her.

I'm feeling more confident with filing my paperwork.

I got support for my plumbing test and pre-apprenticeship exam. I have now been offered an apprenticeship as a plumber.

Here's how we can help

Glasgow's Learning can help you take the first step by providing access to free learning and support across the city.

Learning new skills can be rewarding and fun.

Improving your reading, writing or use of numbers can help you:

- Help your children with their homework
- Fill in forms
- Take up learning at college
- Get a job
- Improve your job skills
- Understand bills and bank statements
- Learn to use computers and the Internet
- Increase your confidence and independence

Who can get help?

Help with reading, writing, spelling or numbers is available free of charge for all adults in Glasgow who are 16 years of age or over.

Every year, thousands of adults take up learning to support them in their family, personal, community and working lives.

You can get help on a one to one basis or as part of a small group.

What does learning involve?

There are opportunities to learn in friendly and informal settings throughout Glasgow, including:

- Community centres
- Libraries
- Colleges
- Work places

Classes are available during the day or in the evening.

Everyone likes to learn in different ways so our tutors will work with you to plan learning to suit your needs.

